To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to recommend Todd Saylor for appointment as CEO of the Call of America organization.

I have known Mr. Saylor for over 20 years. He is a successful local businessman in Angola, Indiana. He heads up a company that provides record keeping and pay-roll service for companies in several states throughout the U.S. He is an active and devoted member of the Fairview Missionary Church and is involved in many community service activities, including Project Help, the local homeless shelter. He is a member of the Trine University Booster Club and he also assists the local school corporation with many of their athletic programs.

I hope that you will give Mr. Saylor due consideration for this appointment. If you have additional questions about Mr. Saylor, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Sincerely,

Richard "Dick" Dodge
State Representative
District 51
